

Song 5 - Frankenspell Superstar - What We Have Learned
Lyrics by Tobin James Mueller Music by Tobin James Mueller

Hilde:

When you came, so frightening yet afraid,
Like an orphaned child without a name...
All alone,
So much unknown.
Now you have found a home...

The Creature:

What I have learned, you've given me in turn.
You've opened up the world.
No longer misplaced,
I've grown strong with grace.
You've shown me the face of one dreamed of.
You've given me love...

Hilde:

When you came into my world so high
With your giant frame against the sky,
Full of need,
An unknown breed;
You brought me family...

The Creature:

Right from the start you opened up your heart,
You made me feel a part.
Though I'd nothing to give,
You helped me to live.
You opened your hand to mine, entwined...

Hilde & The Creature:

What we have learned, we've given each in turn.
We've opened up the world.
We've each found a place
And grown strong with grace.
We've shown each the face of one dreamed of...
What we've learned is love...

Hilde:

When you came when I was so alone...
Here, upon my hill, out on my own...
You were poor,
And so unsure,
But you have taught me more...

Hilde & The Creature:

What we have learned, we've given each in turn.
We've opened up the world.
We've each found a place
And grown strong with grace.
We've shown each the face of one dreamed of...
What we've learned is love.
