

Hilde:

When you came...and shared your cross...
When you came...you healed the loss.
You made me whole. You changed me so...

The Chorus:

When you came...before we knew...
When you came...a life so new...
A hope now slain...our courage flew.
The pain we can't undo.

Gypsies:

Bridges burned.
Questions asked.
Have we learned?
Will the answers last?
Where to go?	Where to?
What to know?	What to...
When to share	Share
And how to grow?	And how to grow?

The Animals:

What we have learned, we've given each in turn.
We've opened up the world.
We've each found a found a place
And grown strong with grace.
We've shown each the face of one dreamed of...

All:

What we have learned, we've given each in turn.
We've opened up the world.
We've each found a found a place
And grown strong with grace.
We've shown each the face of one dreamed of...
What we've learned is love...

Victor:

What I've done...

He was...my son.
I disowned... a heart unborn.

Elisabeth:

You're not the only one.
We've all errored here...

He'll live in us once more...

All:

What we have learned, we've given each in turn.
We've opened up the world.
We've each found a found a place
And grown strong with grace.
We've shown each the face of one dreamed of...
What we've learned is love...
Hold on to... love you've known.

Hilde & Elisabeth:

Hold on to the love you've known,

All: There life waits to be reborn.
